FROM PRINCIPAL'S DESK

"It is a matter of immense pleasure for us that the C.M.P. Newsletter of fourth quarter (January-March) of the academic session 2021-2022 of Kendriya Vidyalaya Bulandshahr Shift-II is ready to provide a wide spectrum of ideas with many shades of color depicting the efforts, hopes and creativity of blooming dales. CMP Newsletter is one of the most awaited internal publications, which chronicles various activities of the primary students and the primary wing of the school in general.

I convey my best wishes to the contributors and also to the editorial team for this creative endeavor."

I Would like to say to my dear students to take all the precautions to be safe from the fatal novel corona virus.

With these words for my all the blooming dales, I would like to sign off:

SH. S.P. SINGH

(PRINCIPAL)

FROM VICE- PRINCIPAL'S DESK

Dear students,

"I am delighted to see your overwhelming response in different class wise and other competitions conducted during the corona pandemic. The newsletter is an imperative forum for encouraging creativity among the budding artists and thinkers from primary classes.

I congratulate the members of editorial board for their vibrant and sincere efforts.

This is the time when we have to move hand in hand fighting against corona as well. The need of hour is that we all put concerted efforts to overcome the adversity of the time. Corona pandemic is a turning point in our life and it has thrown new challenges for all of us.

All the teachers are trying to provide the appropriate ambience to face it. I am confident that my students and teachers will put consistent striving blended with determination and energy to overcome all hurdles and pave path for learning and happiness.

I am quite sure that with the ceaseless efforts of teachers and parents, our students will do wonders in every walk of life.

May the future become more conducive for learning, teaching, growth and development.

Sh. Praveen Kumar
(Vice-Principal)

FROM EDITOR'S DESK

It gives me immense pleasure to express that C.M.P newsletter of fourth quarter of academic session 2020-2021 is in access. It explores the inherent talent of the blooming dales.

Today in this world of hue and cry, if you want real peace and happiness in your life, then don't go anywhere. You have to do nothing new and exclusive. The ultimate way to be happy is hidden in yourself.

The inherent talent which has been endowed by God on you, should be exploited by you. It can be exploited to the maximum when you consistently motivate yourself to put efforts for every learning that you find on the cards.

Don't leave any opportunity ensure your participation in every competition and celebration. It will pave path for your bright future.

I take this opportunity to extend my heartfelt thanks to Principal, Vice-Principal, teachers and the students whose successful efforts and contribution proved handy in making the creative endeavor successful.
